Writing

Express your opinion on the following problem:

Though Shakespear's play 'Romeo and Juliet' was written around 1595, it is still modern and interests people a lot.

Write 150 – 200 words.

Remember to

- make an introduction,
- express your personal opinion on the problem and give reasons for your opinion,
- make a conclusion.

One of the most popular Shakespeare's drama is "Romeo and Juliet". Though this play was written around 1595, it's still popular and often people know about Shakespeare only because of "Romeo and Juliet". But is it still modern? Some people think that answer is yes, cause this tragic love story can happen with everyone, but others think that modern tradition letting everyone to choose their partner by themselves, so this play isn't modern already. There's two different sides, but I should express mine opinion about this problem.

Firstly, in our century we're able to choose our love-partner by ~~themselves~~ ourselves, so I don't think that family would be a problem here.

Besides, I don't think that there are "family-wars" on something like this, as it was before. Secondly, I guess, that people can be smarter and won't die just cause of feelings. They ~~do~~ can understand that this may be stupid way of solving problems.

But some people I can say that "Romeo and Juliet" can be modern. Why? Firstly, we can often hear about child suicide cause of love and all this stuff. Usually it's happening cause their family told them that they're too young for feelings like this or that their partner is a really bad person so they shouldn't have feelings with them. It takes teenagers really strong with their young mind. They want to leave this world cause they can't stay with a man they love. So, when they understand that running away physically is impossible, they deciding to run mentally from their problems.

So, that's why in my opinion Shakespeare's play "Romeo and Juliet" can be half-modern, so that's why it's still one of the most popular plays in the world.
